

Dear First Years,

This is how your peers define consent.

Reciprocal desire and constant respectfulness and acknowledging of each other's boundaries

Consent is a continuous conversation.
Consent is not coerced.

IT HAPPENS HERE (IHH) is a storytelling platform for members of our community who have experienced sexual or relationship violence. IHH also participates in various forms of advocacy and activism to promote sexual & relationship respect.

For more information on this student-led project, please visit go/IHH